

VET WACE requirements Special Consideration for Year 12 students RTO partnership issues - Bulk application process

Schools may apply on behalf of multiple students when their WACE achievement has been adversely affected by complications with an RTO partnership through a bulk application process.

Special consideration process

Applications

Bulk applications for special consideration should be used as a last resort for students who have been affected by complications with a RTO partnership, or RTO certification and resulting processes.

Application Deadlines

Bulk applications for special consideration must be emailed to vetinfo@scsa.wa.edu.au by no later than 1 November 2018, unless otherwise approved by the Director, Standards and Certification.

Written submission

Schools must include in their application:

1. A written submission to the Authority which clearly demonstrates the following:
 - (a) The circumstances which have prevented the students from completing a Certificate II or higher or partial Certificate III or higher by the end of Year 12 and/or the impact of the issue on other WACE requirements.
 - (b) Details of the attempts made by the school to arrange suitable alternatives and the reasons why the arrangement/s were not pursued.
 - (c) In the situation where a RTO's registration or scope of delivery has been impacted, details of any affected full qualifications certified in previous years by the now defunct RTO.
2. A current year Enrolments in VET Units of Competency (ENVET) file populated with only the students who are expected to meet all other WACE requirements by the end of Year 12 and who are enrolled in the affected qualifications.
3. If applicable, a VET Qualification Results (RSQUAL) file from current or previous years populated with only students who are expected to meet all other WACE requirements by the end of Year 12 and who completed qualifications in the affected qualifications that were certified by the relevant RTO.

Schools must include a completed Bulk Application for VET WACE requirements Special Consideration for Year 12 students form with the submission.

Additional Information

Schools will need to apply to the Authority for WACE recognition of previous or current year full qualifications that have already been reported in SIRS in the affected qualifications. Upon approval of an application for special consideration, the unit equivalence for the affected qualifications will be allocated as per the normal VET credit arrangements for WACE and the Certificate II or higher minimum requirement deemed to be met however the achievement will not appear on the Western Australian Statement of Student Achievement (WASSA).
