Copies of Scripts: ATAR Course Examinations 2026

Closing date: By close of business – 4.00 pm (AWST) on Monday, 18 January 2027

ATAR course examination candidates can apply for a copy of their script for each written examination. An examination script contains only the text produced by the candidate during the examination.

Note: examination materials, including scripts and recordings, are destroyed once all processes connected with ATAR course examinations have been completed.

Conditions

In compliance with Australian Government legislation (the Privacy Act 1988), copies of scripts are released to the candidate only via the personal email address that is registered with their WA student number (WASN). The WASN is an eight-digit number that is allocated to students from the School Curriculum and Standards Authority (the Authority) and is found on school reports. Candidates can update their personal email address under the My profile tab in the student portal at https://studentportal.scsa.wa.edu.au.

Applications must be submitted to the Authority by close of business – 4.00 pm (AWST) on Monday, 18 January 2027. Applications received after the closing date cannot be considered.

Copies of scripts will be provided when all the processes connected with ATAR course examinations have been completed, usually by mid-February.

Fee

A fee of $34.00 (GST-free) is payable for each script. Payment is in Australian Dollars only.

If you choose to withdraw your application for a results check, you must withdraw it within five (5) working days of making payment to be eligible for a refund.
