

Copies of Examination Scripts: Candidate application ATAR Course Examinations 2024

Closing date: by close of business – 4.00 pm (AWST) on Monday, 20 January 2025

ATAR course examination candidates may apply for a copy of their script for each written examination. Candidates should be aware that an examination script contains only the text they produced during the examination.

Note: once all processes connected with ATAR course examinations have been completed, examination materials, including scripts and recordings, are destroyed in accordance with the authorised retention and disposal schedule.

Conditions

In compliance with Australian Government legislation (Privacy Act 1988), copies of examination scripts are released to the candidate only via the personal email address that is registered with their WA student number (WASN). The WASN is an eight-digit number that is allocated to students from the School Curriculum and Standards Authority (the Authority) and is found on school reports. Candidates can update their personal email address under the My profile tab in the student portal at <https://studentportal.scsa.wa.edu.au>.

Applications must be submitted to the Authority by close of business – 4.00 pm (AWST) on Monday, 20 January 2025. Applications received after the closing date cannot be considered.

Copies of examination scripts will be provided when all the processes connected with ATAR course examinations have been completed, usually by mid-February.

Fee

A fee of $34.00 (GST-free) is payable for each script.

Payment is in Australian Dollars only.

Foreign currencies, bank drafts in foreign currencies and personal cheques are not accepted.

If you choose to withdraw your application for a copy/copies of examination scripts, you must withdraw it within five (5) working days of making payment to be eligible for a refund.
